COURT ROUNDUP: RC Mother GetsJail Term

Mrs. Barbara Jean Shipley, 21-year-old mother of three children, late Monday was sentenced to the California Institution for Women at Tehachapi for two burglaries.

The Redwood City woman broke down, cried and had to be led from the courtroom by a matron after Superior Judge Edmund Scott imposed the sentence.

"What could I do?" the judge commented from the bench after the sentence. "Look at her record."

Mrs. Shipley had her first brush with the law when she was 12, Adult Probation Officer Don Helbush reported. She was sent for two and a half years to a school for delinquent girls. After she got out, another burglary resulted in her incarceration again.

All told, her record, prior to her arrest on Oct. 12, showed six arrests and convictions, five of them for burglary and one for petty theft. When last arrested she was on probation from Alameda County.

She was arrested on Oct. 12 and charged with the burglaries of the homes of Frances C. Stoddard, 309 25th Ave., San Mateo, and Cecil Thornton, 247 Alameda de las Pulgas, Redwood City. She obtained a $125 ring and $25 cash. She pleaded guilty to the charges.

Helbush stated that Mrs. Shipley and her husband, who now is in the State of Washington, had domestic troubles. Mrs. Shipley told Helbush that she stole to feed her babies. Judge Scott also set Dec. 20 for the passing of sentence on Frank Johnson, 21, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Redwood Bowl on Nov. 9. Johnson asked for probation.

In the other superior court, Judge Aylett R. Cotton set two trials for Dec. 21, indicating that one of them may be changed later.

Keith L. Lewis is scheduled to go on trial for attempted robbery and assault with a deadly weapon. He is accused of slugging Charles Huber, a Daly City automobile salesman, in an attempted robbery on Oct. 22. Lewis had entered a double plea: Not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity. Monday he withdrew the insanity plea.

Millard H. Haney, 28-year-old San Francisco mechanic, pleaded not guilty to a rape charge. His trial is the other one set for Dec. 21.

Haney is accused of assaulting a 40-year-old Daly City mother of three children, on Nov. 15.

Richard T. Bojo, accused of burglarizing the home of Richard Mellen, 512 Allerton St., Redwood City, on Oct. 13, pleaded not guilty. His case was continued until Dec. 20 to set for trial. Bojo allegedly stole a ring and drank a pint of cream during the burglary.

Karastatiris Granted Probation

Theodore Karastatiris, 54-year-old Emerald Lake resident who in May almost killed his wife, Monday was given probation for two years and told not to lose his temper any more.

Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton, who approved the recommendation of Adult Probation Officer John Helbush, said that if Karastatiris' home is broken up, "there will be two more wards of the juvenile court."

"I hate to break up a family," Judge Cotton told Karastatiris. "You've got to hold your temper. Don't you ever come back here again. Don't use violence or strong language."

Karastatiris pleaded guilty to section 273D of the penal code, "infliction of fraudulent injury by husband upon wife." The offense is a felony. Originally Karastatiris was charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

On May 27 Karastatiris beat his wife, Mitty, 32, over the head with a ballpeen hammer after she filed suit for divorce. Her two children, Christine, and Teddy, were with her at the time. The assault occurred in the driveway of the Karastatiris home at 507 East View Way.

After the assault Karastatiris fled to Mexico and remained there until Oct. 11, when he returned and surrendered. He was held at the county jail until Oct. 30, when he was released on bail.

Mrs. Karastatiris refused to testify against her husband and Helbush reported that the two have become reconciled.

Rail Crossing Plan Postponed

Redwood City councilmen delayed action on a Public Utilities Commission project to repair railroad crossings last night. The councilmen voted to put the matter on the agenda until they can determine whether the city's share of the expense can be taken from state gas tax funds.

City Engineer Glenn M. Jain told councilmen that the city's share of the project would come to approximately $1000 for painting and signs. He and City Mgr. E. A. Rolison also urged that the council spend another $500 for additional traffic control signs.

RC Man Quizzed After Arrest

Redwood City police arrested Lester D. Danz, 54, 167 Nevada St. early Monday morning on a charge of drunken driving and the district attorney's office was investigating today to determine whether to issue charges of battery and exhibiting a weapon in a rude manner.

Danz was arrested in the Broadway 2600 block on the drunken driving charge.

$1200 Burglary In SM Cafe

Between $1200 and $1300 in cash was stolen from the Fireside Restaurant, 20th Ave. and El Camino Real, San Mateo, after closing time Monday morning.

The burglar or burglars left $361 on the floor in their haste to leave, when they apparently were frightened away by the janitor, according to police.

The janitor, Lewis Palma of San Francisco, was in another part of the building when the burglary took place, police said.

He told police he noticed nothing amiss from shortly after 2 a.m. when the last bartender left, until 4:20 a.m. when he came into the bar after cleaning the rest rooms.

Palma said he then noticed the liquor cabinet underneath the bar had been forced open with a half-inch pry bar. Four metal coin boxes which contained the money had been taken from the liquor cabinet.

He found one of the coin boxes on the floor. In the rear, he found the back door of the kitchen ajar. Police said this door is kept closed but not locked. It leads to a garbage enclosure which can be opened from the outside.

Doctor, Wife Hurt in Accident

Dr. Logan Gray and his wife, Bernice, of 516 Clark Dr., San Mateo, were injured early Monday morning when their car plunged into a telephone pole, after Dr. Gray had fallen asleep at the wheel.

Police said the accident happened in front of 509 Clark Dr., only a few doors from the Gray's home, to which they were returning from a visit with friends.

Dr. Gray suffered multiple cuts about the right eye. Mrs. Gray sustained a cut brow, face cuts and lost two teeth. Both were reported in good condition at Mills Hospital late Monday.

Dr. Gray is a member of the hospital staff.

According to police, the Grays were en route home when Dr. Gray fell asleep at the wheel and lost control of the car.

Press Association Installs Officers

Floyd McCue, publisher of the Redwood City Star-Advertiser, last night was master of ceremonies at the annual installation of officers of the San Mateo County Press Assn. Walter Gilgert, co-publisher of the San Bruno Herald, took office as president, succeeding Mrs. Aileen Bramble of South San Francisco.

Ray Dixon, publisher of the San Carlos Courier-Bulletin, was installed vice president, and J. Hart Clinton, publisher of the San Mateo Times, became secretary-treasurer.

George E. Dunn, publisher of the Coastside Comet, was host publisher.

3 Persons Hurt In RC Accidents

Three persons suffered minor injuries in two Redwood City accidents involving seven automobiles Saturday and Sunday.

The injured who were all treated at Redwood City Clinic are Harold E. Peck, 54, and Arrah E. Peck, 55, both of 141 East 1st St., Campbell; and Ada L. Sims, 58, 1390 Elm St., San Carlos.

The Pecks were injured Saturday at 5 p.m. in a three-car pileup on Bayshore Hwy. at Brewster Ave. Mr. Peck was the driver of a southbound car which collided headon with a car driven by Andrew H. Smith, 37, 1225 Taylor St., San Francisco. A car driven by Travis L. Greer, 27, Moffett Field, struck the rear of the Peck car.

Ada Sims suffered a cut forehead in a four-car overtaking accident Sunday at 7:09 p.m. on El Camino Real at Avondale Ave. Driver of the automobiles, all of whom were northbound, were Lucille Harris, 48, 2648 California St., San Francisco; Lois Brown Potts, 23, 7 Santos St., San Francisco; Hope W. Reifschneider, 37, 864 North Claremont St., San Mateo; and John H. Sims, 37, 1390 Elm St., San Carlos.

RC Woman Hits Quality of Water

Mrs. Theresa Burgmeier, 1603 Jefferson Ave., is completely unimpressed with wonders of modern hydraulic science. At least, she is not much in favor of the kind of water the multi-million-dollar Hetch Hetchy system is feeding into Redwood City mains.

Monday night she appeared at a city council session with a bottle of water containing sediment which, she said, makes the water bad to drink and hard for washing.

Water Supt. Lyle Winters told the council that the water in her neighborhood was better than the average.

The problem, he explained, is that the Hetch Hetchy water, which is brought all the way from the Sierra, is an "active" water which causes corrosion on city cast iron mains.

Two Burglaries Reported Here

Redwood City police Monday were seeking to solve two weekend burglaries, one of a dwelling and the other of a physician's office.

Taken Saturday night from the home of Emil Landucci at 130 Eaton Villa Pl. were a woman's wrist watch, a gold stick pin, a wallet and approximately $20. Entry was gained through an unlocked door.

Taken from the office of Dr. William J. Miles at 29 James Ave. was $6 in cash sometime between Sunday afternoon and 3 a.m. Monday. Entry was gained by jimmying a rear door.

CONFIRM ASSESSMENT DIST.

Resolutions confirming an assessment district and an assessment diagram for Valota Rd. sewers were passed last night by Redwood City councilmen.

City Studies Plan For Hiring Women

Proposals for the revision of civil service rules dealing with married women were sent to the Redwood City council Monday by the personnel board. At present the rules prohibit the hiring of married women and board members have told councilmen that the rules prevent them from adequately filling some positions.

The proposals would:

1. Prohibit the hiring of any man and wife by the city simultaneously.
2. Grant married women no tenure unless their husbands are disabled.
3. Apply all civil service rules to married women, should they be hired, except the tenure rules.
4. Provide that a woman who becomes married while employed by the city would lose her tenure.

Councilmen set the proposals for a hearing at their next session.

No Accords With Outsiders: Council

Redwood City councilmen this week voted to enter into no written agreements with industrial plants outside the city limits for the furnishing of fire protection.

The Paraffine Companies, Inc., had requested that for a fee the city promise in writing to answer alarms at its plant.

Chief Joe Lodi said that all such plants receive unwritten protection on a mutual aid plan of fire departments in San Mateo County. He said, however, that a written deal for one industry would make such service available to all industries in the neighborhood and that he didn't believe such deals were fair to the taxpayers who have paid for the city department.

City Short By $119,000 On Sewer Job

Figures compiled in the city hall today showed that Redwood City is going to be short approximately $119,000 when it comes time to pay all the bills on a sewage disposal plant the city is erecting at Steinberger St. and Steinberger Slough.

The figures were compiled by Richard Miller, administrative assistant; John J. Brophy, city auditor, and Glenn M. Jain, city engineer.

Most of the shortage was caused by the increase in building costs between 1944 when a civic improvement bond issue was voted and the present time. When the issue was approved by voters it contained $300,000 for the sewage plant.

The county is adding money to the project to pay for that part of the system which will serve the North Fair Oaks Dist. which was outside city limits.

So far the city council has taken no steps to raise the additional money. There was some talk last Spring when contracts were let for the job of asking voters for another bond issue. But this issue did not appear on the November ballot.

Additional reasons for the increased cost of the plant are:

1. It was found that pilings will have to be driven deeper than originally predicted.
2. The city had to purchase a site for the plant.
3. Incidental costs such as engineers' fees, payrolls for inspectors and the preparations of plans.

Boy Scout News

(Agency of Redwood City Community Chest)

Eighteen scouts of Troop 153, San Carlos, accompanied by Scoutmaster Les Mundell and four other leaders, returned a week ago from a camping trip to Pomponio. Transportation was provided by the leaders and Eagle Scout Bob Weckerle was in charge of first aid. The scouts worked on advancement with such good results that at last week's meeting a Court of Honor was held at which the following boys received second class rank: William Packard, Donald Kroeck, John Stein, Jere Watson, Robert Brady and Richard Brockway.

★ ★ ★

Troop committeeman Henry Dawson instructed the members of Troop 120, Redwood City, in first aid at their last meeting. Newcomer Charles Wilcox was initiated into the troop by Scoutmaster Hiram S. Stout.

★ ★ ★

George Gooding of Troop 122, Redwood City, already a Star Scout, has qualified for life rank and has earned merit badges in pathfinding, physical development and public health. Bill Werner, John La Torre and Don Tomatis received Second Class badges.

★ ★ ★

Pack 52, San Carlos is planning to hold its Christmas party on Dec. 17.

★ ★ ★

Troop 104, Redwood City, is proud of its two new life scouts, Eugene Wilson and Joe Spinella. Eugene recently earned merit badges in public health, personal health, first aid and athletics and Joe the physical development badge.

★ ★ ★

Robert H. Sanders of Troop 107 has qualified for merit badges in insect life, zoology and chemistry.

★ ★ ★

Cubmaster D. W. FitzGerald of Pack 15, Redwood City awarded the following advancements at a recent pack meeting: Barry Lawless, bear badge with gold and four silver arrows; Gerard Follittie, bear badge with gold and five silver arrows; Bruce Cassara, wolf badge with gold and three silver arrows. Service stars went to Bruce Byram, Richard Janus, Dona Peterson, Gerard Follittie, Don Davis, Nick Barber, Bruce Cassasa, John Moskey, Harold Bozzo, Walter Perdue, Jimmy Fitzgerald and Russ Triano. Teddy Silen, Barney Goodhall and Gary Cayton received bobcat pins; Gerard Follittie, Byron Williams, Don Davis and John Moskoff received denner stripes; Donald Peterson, Jerry Delany, Gary Brandenberg, Walter Perdue and Jimmy FitzGerald assistant denner stripes.

OK BILLING MACHINE

A billing machine for the Redwood City water department was authorized Monday by the city council. The machine costs $3195.

Four Routed As Fire Hits D.C. Home

A fire early Monday morning destroyed the entire belongings of a Daly City family of four, which was nearly trapped by swiftly spreading flames.

The victims are Mr. and Mrs. Buster V. Hazel and their children, aged 2 and 3, who only last week returned home after being hospitalized with polio.

Elmer Kennedy, volunteer fire chief, said the blaze apparently started in the basement garage of the Hazel home at 384 Bellevue Ave.

Hazel was awakened as flames burst through the door filling the house with smoke. He ran to the children's bedroom and took them into the street while his wife phoned in the alarm.

By the time they reached the street, swirling flames filled the house, leaping from windows in both the first and second floors.

The house was completely gutted, all household belongings and the family automobile being lost. Chief Kennedy estimated the loss at $7500.

Polio Cases Drop in County, But Epidemic Is Not Over

Although only one case of infantile paralysis has occurred during the past week, Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, was reluctant today to announce the end of the epidemic.

Dr. Chope said that information provided him by the State Health Dept. showed that the epidemic was continuing. A total of 5276 cases were recorded in the state this year up to the end of November, and 157 additional cases have occurred during the first three days of this week.

There has been no marked decline in the statewide epidemic during November, Dr. Chope stated. The weekly totals for November were 277, 206, 252 and 190.

In San Mateo County the epidemic passed the 100 mark with the end of November. The last case, that of a 4-year-old Redwood City girl, is the 101st case. The little girl suffered only a mild form of the disease, the doctor said, and did not require hospitalization.

Despite the doctor's reluctance to declare the epidemic ended, statistics showed that there has been a decline since October's record total of 27 cases. The total for November was 23.

A breakdown of figures compiled by the health department showed that of the 98 patients whose records were available for study, 56 wer male and 42 famale.

The disease struck most violently at the younger groups, 30 persons were stricken. Between 5 and 9, the number was 26. The other age groups showed: 10-14 years, 13; 15-19 years, 5; 20-29 years, 12; 30 to 39 years, 11.

By geographical location, Redwood City and San Mateo were the hardest hit. Each recorded 23 cases of polio. Other areas had the following number of cases:

Menlo Park 10, Stanford Village 3, North Palo Alto 2, East Palo Alto 2, San Carlos 3, Belmont 2, Burlingame 5, Daly City 6, San Bruno 4, South San Francisco 11, Millbrae 3 and Lomita Park 1.

Body of New Baby Found on Dump

The body of a new-born baby boy, apparently tossed into a garbage pail by its mother, yesterday evening was found on the Belmont garbage dump, 1½ miles east of Bayshore Hwy.

It had been dumped there, Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore believed, by one of the trucks which unloaded its garbage there yesterday.

Dr. Stuart Lindsay, pathologist at the University of California Hospital in San Francisco, said today that the baby apparently had been born alive.

He could not tell at this time whether the baby had been killed or had died of natural causes. There were no marks of violence apparent.

Neither could the doctor tell whether the baby had been thrown alive into a garbage can and died there, or whether it had been dead when abandoned.

Dr. Lindsay said that he planned to do a microscopic examination which would not be completed until this weekend.

Moore said that the baby's naked body was found by two scavengers, Oliver Lavezzo and Natale Zirelli. Zirelli, 353 North Claremont St., San Mateo, reported the grisly find.

The chief deputy declared that the body could have been wrapped in a piece of burlap, several of which were found near the body. The body itself was somewhat decomposed, showing that death probably occurred several days ago.

"The body definitely was hauled there in a garbage truck," Moore said. He added that the mother couldn't have walked or driven to the dump.

Trucks uick up garbage all the way from Broadway, Burlingame, to East Palo Alto, the chief deputy said. He haid there was no way of knowing from which city the baby's body was taken.

Moore said that the baby apparently was delivered without medical attention, since it had not been cleaned up. It still had the umbilical cord.

Assessor Tells Need for More County Funds

The county assessor's office, whose work has boomed with the county's population increase, is going to need $20,000 more before the end of the fiscal year, Assessor O. B. Hempstead notified the board of supervisors this week.

Not only will his office need more money, Hempstead stated, but it will need more help, more supplies and more space.

Since the assessor's budget was submitted last Mar. 1, assessed property has increased nearly $23,000,000, or 12 per cent, Hempstead declared. During the same assessment period—March to July—13,736 veterans' exemptions were handled—an increase of 48 per cent over the previous year.

"These two major items, coupled with the increased number of people visiting our office daily, have overtaxed our facilities to the end that we cannot cope with the situation without augmenting the present setup," Hempstead told the supervisors.

During the 1948 assessment period the assessor's office increased the assessed value of personal property nearly $2,000,000, producing additional tax money of $97,000.

"For the approaching assessment period, we will require additional part time help in order to cover the field within the allotted time," Hempstead continued. "We believe each man added to our force for this purpose can produce actual tax money equal to five times his cost, including his salary, mileage, supplies and office help required to process the business produced by him."

Hempstead said that the mounting volume of business due to, veterans' exemptions is a mounting loss to the taxpayers.

The loss arises not only because of less taxes but also because of a handling cost "which is a direct pull on the county budget, for which the budget of the assessor's office is not geared for the handling of an estimated 15,000 veterans' applications for tax exemption."

Hempstead said that at this time he was not asking for additional funds, but only notifying the board of existing conditions and future problems.

"We do know," he stated, "that we will have to increase our demands, and at an increased cost."

Truck Driver Jailed On Drunk Charge

John P. O'Malley, 41-year-old San Francisco truck driver was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunken driving and released from the county jail on $250 bail.

The California Highway Patrol reported that O'Malley was picked up on Bayshore Hwy. near Brisbane in a passenger car.

Jain to Work Out Sidewalk Problem

Walter Remmers, 936 Redwood Ave., took his dispute with the Redwood City Engineering Dept. to the city council this week.

The department claims the sidewalk he installed in front of his home is of poor workmanship and too rough. Remmers, saying he was a cement man, said insurance firms would insure a smooth sidewalk.

City Engineer Glenn M. Jain said a "brush" finish would be acceptable but Remmer's sidewalk didn't meet specifications. He pointed out that the city had withheld connecting utilities to the Remmers home until the sidewalk was brought to standard.

Mrs. Remmers told councilmen she was tired of living in a home without utilities.

Would Uncle Ed prefer cheddar to polka dots?

Everyone has special tastes in food. And therein lies an easy answer to many of your Christmas gift problems.

Take Uncle Ed, for instance. Maybe instead of the usual tie, he'd prefer an assortment of his favorite cheeses. Grandma, with her sweet tooth, might like several jars of jams and jellies. And here are more ideas—fruit cake for Aunt Martha, cigarettes for the postman, candy for the newsboy—and so on right down your list.

Beautiful part of it is, you can buy these gifts while you do your food shopping. Think of the time and trouble you save. Think of the money you save, too, when you buy them at Safeway's low prices. As a starting point, check the list of gift suggestions shown elsewhere in this ad.

Incidentally, the December Family Circle, now on sale at Safeway, features gifts you can make right in your own kitchen. Complete recipes, plus full color pictures to show how they'll look when done. Probably the most appreciated gifts of all are those you make yourself.

Correct Weight . . . According to our way of figuring, there are sixteen ounces to the pound with no "if's" "and's," or "but's." Our scales are in plain sight where you can see the dials, and we have them periodically checked for accuracy. Certain foods are subject to "shrinkage" in weight even after short periods in or on their way to the store. This should be our worry and not yours. When we weigh food up in advance for the convenience of self-service, we know what this shrinkage will be and we add enough to take care of it. A pound of food must weight sixteen ounces when you get it . . . not just when we weight it up.

San Carlos Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 19 celebrated the occasion of reregistration with a birthday party at its regular meeting recently at the home of leader, Mrs. John C. Dutton. They spent the Dec. 1 meeting working on gifts for their fathers. At this meeting the girls learned of the bravery of Jean White in saving her little sister's life. The troop committee, consisting of Mrs. Charles Normand, Mrs. Louis Banks, Mrs. M. V. Farina and Mrs. H. D. Greene, is giving the troop a Christmas tree which the girls will decorate for their Christmas party.

The investiture of Judy Flowers took place at a recent meeting. Coleaders are Mrs. Robert Shears and Mrs. Wilbur Jones.

Scout Troop 48 were the guests of Mrs. Ralph Graham at a party. The party was held at Mrs. Graham's home in San Carlos. Mrs. Bruce Beuer assisted with the afternoon's festivities. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the girls.

During the regular meeting of the troop Mrs. W. A. Matson of the Red Cross was the guest. She gave a short talk on nutrition and the value of eating proper foods. This talk applies to the good grooming badge on which the girls are working.

Troop 63 held a Court of Awards to receive proficiency badges and first class rank awards. Miss Lois Little of Sequoia District made the presentations. The girls met twice a week during the Summer to complete work on these badges.

Those earning proficiency badges were Vivian Cummings, Joan Ennis, Judith Schroeder, Carol Luby, Janice Berkla, Carole Calder, Shirley May McArthur and Jeanne Fleming. The troop members had chosen homemaking as their major program field. Other fields chosen for badges were arts and crafts, literature and dramatics, out-of-doors, nature and sports and games.

Snow Queen Salad
To Brighten Holiday Meals
Made with California Canned Fruit Cocktail

Easy Recipe

2 cups canned fruit cocktail
1 cup syrup from fruit cocktail
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) plain gelatin
½ cup cold water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
Dash cayenne pepper
4 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ cup whipping cream
½ cup chopped celery
Salad greens
Whipped cream dressing

Drain fruit cocktail and heat syrup. Soften gelatin in water and dissolve in hot syrup. Blend in salt, mustard, cayenne, lemon juice and rind. Cool until slightly thickened. Whip cream until stiff; fold into gelatin mixture with 1 cup fruit cocktail and celery. Turn into oiled molds and chill until firm. Unmold on greens; garnish with remaining fruit cocktail. Serve with dressing if desired. Serves 6.

Dressing: Whip ½ cup whipping cream until stiff; fold into ½ cup mayonnaise.
